Benefits of Virtela Services:

As a global managed services provider, Virtela is constantly managing and proactively addressing networking issues. In order to provide customers with the added visibility into their network, Virtela has integrated Netflow Reporting capabilities into its Online Portal, VirtelaView. Netflow reports provide customers with insight and drill down capabilities into the routers and traffic flows on their network.

Netflow reports can be viewed at a single router level, an aggregate view of all routers, or a combination of routers, providing customers an almost endless flexibility to visualize traffic patterns and drill into meaningful details of their network environment.
